

Opera Society Inc President Honoured

The Committee and members of the Opera Society Inc. are delighted to congratulate President Valma Allaway on being awarded the Medal of the Order of Australia (OAM) for “Service to the performing arts administration” in the 2020 Queen’s Birthday Honours.

A staunch supporter of Opera in particular our president has worked tirelessly for the benefit of our society, its’ members and Opera in Victoria for many decades.

We believe that this accolade is extremely well deserved and indicates just how valuable her work, and that of the society in general, is to our community.

President Valma Allaway