

Our President Honoured at Government House

Following her investiture at Government House our President Valma Allaway celebrated her award (Order of Australia) with family and the committee on Tuesday December 8th 2020. This occurred at short notice with insufficient time to enable all Opera Society members to participate.

